JVL

Joshua Van Leader lived an incredible life over the thirty one years that he was on this planet, moving from an accomplished footballer into the world of men's fashion, art and poetry, inspiring so many with his light, creativity and warmth.

After a five year struggle with constant pain and dark depression Joshua lost his battle in November 2022 leaving a massive gap in all of our lives as well as his work being left in limbo in his studio, storage units and on his laptop. It has become the aim of his family and close friends to maintain and extend his legacy and ensure his work becomes visible into the wider world so that many more people can enjoy, be inspired and helped by it.

An organisation, "Joshua Van Leader" has been established to facilitate the release of his work and his JVL brand. This blog (supported by the JVL Instagram and web sites) will hopefully provide a narrative on how and when this will be done. It will hopefully also provide some insightful reflection on Joshua's life shared by those that knew him well and will provide meaningful perspective on his work.
